Resolution No. 108

Lil Bud E

WHEREAS, hailing from St. Louis, rapper/songwriter/actor Lil Bud E, with his universal style and catchy lyrics, is about to make his entrance onto the world stage. With appearances at the Celebrity Gear Up Conference at the America's Center in St. Louis, Missouri Black Expo, the Echelon Center during the Bayou Classic in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, the Demetrius Johnson Community Christmas party and landing a spot on the Teen Swag Tour, Lil Bud E has already shown his commitment to his art; and

WHEREAS, he received the Platinum Performance Award at the 2009 Teen Swag Awards. He earned a spot on stage at the Rosemount Theater in Chicago as the opening act for Justin Bieber. He was recognized for his talents not only as a M.C. but also as a host, writer, and even a dancer; and

WHEREAS, Lil Bud E is an 18 year old graduate of McCluer North High School. He is a take charge type of person and is considered a leader to many of his friends. At 18 years old, this prodigy is on his way to stardom. Under Sphinx Entertainment/EMI/Capitol, Lil Bud E is undergoing a rigorous development process. Well disciplined and with a lot of love, Lil Bud E has a lot of respect for the business. Lil Bud E is serious about his music, but at the same time he wants to make music that allows his audiences to simply have fun; and

WHEREAS, his latest project "I Do It For The Kids" relates to kids all over the world with his songs Hall Sweep and Graduation. Not only does he portray a positive image, but his other songs bring out the party in you. He can be hard without being hard core. He can please the "young ear" without damaging it. He is destined to be the savior for the hip hop party sound. With determination, hard work, and plenty of talent, only time can tell when Lil Bud E will be the next voice of the young generation; and

WHEREAS, Lil Bud E is the ambassador for youth in the 19th Ward and will support the efforts to provide a spirit of respect, good citizenship, and the goal to complete education requirements.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize Lil Bud E and we wish him continued success, achievement and accomplishment and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Resolution No. 113

Tyrone Leon Thompson

WHEREAS, we pause in our deliberations to note the untimely passing of lifelong St. Louis resident, Tyrone Leon Thompson; and

WHEREAS, Tyrone Leon Thompson was born July 14, 1962 in St. Louis to the union of Jack and Betty Thompson. He confessed a hope in Christ at the Wayman AME Temple under the leadership of Reverend Samuel Pointer. He and his family later joined Northern Missionary Baptist Church; and

WHEREAS, he was educated in the University City School District and was a proud graduate of University City High School Class of 1982. Tyrone began his college education at Lincoln University in Jefferson City, Missouri and later transferred to Webster University. Tyrone entered the police academy and served as a Police Officer for the City of University City where he advanced to the role of detective. Tyrone left the University City Police Department and was appointed Chief of Police for the City of Pagedale, Missouri where he served with enthusiasm. After several years in law enforcement, Tyrone began his tenure with Kwame Building Group. There he worked in many capacities, which helped to enhance the Thompson name in community. He was a vital part of Kwame Building Group and helped to ensure the effective operation of the company. Tyrone's dedication and drive were surpassed by no one. At the time of his passing, he worked at Kwame Building Group, attended school, raised three children and worked as a Fraud Investigator for the Missouri Attorney General's Office; and

WHEREAS, Tyrone was committed to serving the community, a quality instilled in him by his parents. He spent many years as a mentor to high school students and enjoyed his weekly mentoring trips to Carnahan High School. He was the President of the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. St. Louis, Missouri Support Group, which focused on the teaching of non-violence. Tyrone organized many trips to Atlanta, Georgia for the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. holiday celebration. He received many accolades and recognitions; and

WHEREAS, Tyrone's love of music was evident, whether he was playing his two favorite songs on the bass—"Fantastic Voyage" and "Boogie Oogie Oogie"—performing karaoke with his sister, Sonja; or building his music library on his computer. He looked forward to time spent with his UCHS '82 classmates and his Black Cinema Sunday family. Tyrone was a dedicated father, brother, uncle and son and cherished every moment spent with family. He was charismatic, loved by all who knew him and impacted the lives of so many. And everyone who knew Tyrone knew they were loved by him. Tyrone was fond of superheroes and was a true superhero to his friends and family; and

WHEREAS, Tyrone will be remembered by his children, Tyrell, Kayla, Tyler Thompson and their mother Victoria; his parents, Jack and Former State Representative Honorable Betty Thompson; two grandparents, Mozella Cavett and Mandy Louatrice White; two brothers, Anthony (Kim) and Kwame; one sister, Sonja Branscomb; three nieces, Kristin Thompson, Imani and Ayanna Branscomb; one nephew, Michael Thompson; and a host of aunts, uncles, family and friends.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause to remember the many accomplishments and contributions of Tyrone Leon Thompson to the citizens of the City of St. Louis and we join with his many friends in expressing our sorrow at his passing, and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a memorial copy for presentation to the Thompson family, at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.
