Introduced on the 21st day of July, 2008 by

Honorable Gregory J. Carter, Alderman 27th Ward

Resolution No. 137

Mrs. Parlee Hayes'

100th Birthday

Whereas, this Honorable Board of Aldermen has been apprised of the upcoming birthday celebrations of Mrs. Parlee Hayes honoring 100 years of life filled with church and community service; and

Whereas, Mrs. Hayes was born on July 23, 1908 in Monroe, Louisiana to her parents Sarah Hopkins and Wash Hayes, had 6 siblings, attended and completed her elementary education in Monroe, Louisiana which was no small feat for an African B American woman of that day; and

Whereas, traveling to St. Louis in 1938, Mrs. Hayes was determined to get a high school diploma. Mrs. Hayes attended night school while working at the Easter Seal Foundation where she worked for many years; and

Whereas, Mrs. Hayes joined the Mount Olive Missionary Baptist Church in 1957, then under the leadership of its pastor the Reverend David Lee Langford, where she began working in the Sunday School; and

Whereas, her faith and call to service caused Mrs. Hayes to join the Missionary Society, the Baptist Training Union, Christian Board of Education, Willing Workers and Mother's Board, as well as, becoming an ongoing visitor to the church sick and shut-ins; and

Whereas, in 1940 she married Mr. Fred Hayes and through and with this union shared her Christian love with numerous children in her church and community; and

Whereas, in honor of her life, history, experience and wisdom acquired over more than ten decades a grand celebration is planned for Mrs. Hayes by her family, friends and church members;

Now Therefore Be It Resolved by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to join in the festivities to celebrate 100 years of life and history and by adoption of this resolution wishes to join in the festivities and congratulate Mrs. Hayes on her life filled with love and service and direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of the resolution over the permanent rolls of this Board and to prepare a fitting copy of this resolution to be presented to the honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by its sponsor.

Introduced on the 22nd day of July, 2007 by:

Honorable Terry Kennedy, Alderman 18th Ward

Resolution No. 138

Mr. Perry Roberts

WHEREAS, Perry Roberts served his country in the United States Navy during the Vietnam war and holds a B.A from Southern Illinois University; and

WHEREAS, Perry also served as Chief of Staff to Missouri Governor Kit Bond and in the cabinet of Illinois Governor Richard Oglivie; and

WHEREAS, Perry began his career at Emerson Electric in 1977 as Director of Public Affairs, and was promoted to Vice President of Public Affairs and served as a Corporate Officer for Emerson; and

WHEREAS, Perry has represented Emerson for more than 30 years in Jefferson City, in Washington, DC; and state capitals across the country, and

WHEREAS, Perry served as Chairman of the Associated Industries of Missouri, and of the Public Affairs Steering Committee of the National Association of Manufacturers; and,

WHEREAS, Perry was one of the founding members of the Public Policy Council of the St. Louis Regional and Chamber Growth Association, served as Chair of the RCGA Board of Directors Government Affairs Committee from 1996-1998, and continued to serve on the Public Policy Council Executive Committee for more than a decade; and

WHEREAS, Perry has been the legendary "go to guy" for the St. Louis business and civic community on local, state and federal issues; and

WHEREAS, Perry has been a mentor to many young men and women in the public policy arena, who have benefitted from his guidance and expertise.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize Mr. Perry Roberts and we wish him continued success and accomplishment and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

WHEREAS, this joyous occasion was celebrated on July 19, 2008 in Boland Hall at the Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis; and

WHEREAS, Lloyd and Norma, a bit older, much wiser, and still very much in love, have earned the respect and love of their family and their many long-time friends and neighbors in St. Louis;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis, that we wish to congratulate Lloyd and Norma Taaffee on the occasion of their glorious Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary, that we encourage them to continue in their commitment to each other, family, friends and community, and we wish them many more years of happiness together; and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of this proceeding and to prepare a commemorative copy for presentation to our honorees at a time and place deemed appropriate by the sponsor.

Introduced on the 31st day of July, 2008 by:

Honorable Lyda Krewson, Alderwoman 28th Ward
Resolution No. 146

Mr. David Lipman

WHEREAS, we pause in our deliberations to note the passing of longtime St. Louis resident, Mr. David Lipman; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Lipman was managing editor of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch for 14 of his 36 years at the newspaper, died on July 31, 2008 following an illness. He was 77 and had lived in Chesterfield; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Lipman joined the Post-Dispatch in 1960 as a sportswriter and covered Missouri Tiger athletics before he was promoted to assistant sports editor in 1966. He rose through the ranks and, in 1979, was appointed managing editor, which put him in overall supervision of the newspaper's daily report; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Lipman ran the newsroom until 1992, when he was promoted to a corporate planning post for the Pulitzer Publishing Co., then owner of the Post-Dispatch. Mr. Lipman was in charge of Pulitzer/2000, an effort to plan the newspaper's direction in the Internet age, until he retired in 1996; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Lipman also was author and co-author of seven sports books, including biographies of baseball players LeRoy "Satchel" Paige and Ken Boyer, football quarterbacks Jim Hart and Joe Namath, and baseball manager/executive Branch Rickey; and

WHEREAS, In 1971, when he was one of the news editors, a junior-management post, it fell to Mr. Lipman to decide whether to publish some of the Pentagon Papers, a secret chronicle of government documents on the Vietnam War. Senior editors weren't in town. Mr. Lipman decided to run them, but he called it "an emotional experience. I aged considerably in one day." The consequences included the arrival of a federal marshal in a government effort to stop publication. Of whether to run them, he said, "There was no question." Joseph Pulitzer Jr., then Post-Dispatch publisher and pleased by Mr. Lipman's decision, soon promoted him to assistant managing editor.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause to remember the many contributions of Mr. David Lipman to the citizens of the City of St. Louis and we join with his many friends in expressing our sorrow at his passing, and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a memorial copy for presentation to the Below family, at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor

Introduced on the 4th day of August, 2008 by:

Resolution No. 156

WHEREAS, we have been apprised that on Sunday, September 15, 2008 the 100th Anniversary of Messiah Lutheran Church will be celebrated; and

WHEREAS, Messiah Lutheran Church traces its roots back to a few meetings held in December of 1907 when local men began a discussion regarding the logistics of starting a congregation. After prayerful deliberation, they decided to begin services on January 19th 1908. The first service was conducted in German, and then alternated weekly between German and English. Kleekamps' Hall on Grand Avenue was secured for just $5 per Sunday and Messiah was off and running. By February, the congregation was officially organized, in March it had formed its first constitution and by September had called Reverend William Wilk as its first pastor. Eager for their own place of worship, the congregation broke ground on a church building at Grand and Pestalozzi in December of 1908; and

WHEREAS, after only a few years, the congregation had outgrown its first chapel building. With the same zeal shown in the origination of the church, a building campaign was launched on Messiah's 20th anniversary entitled, "It Can Be Done." The current home of Messiah Lutheran Church was subsequently dedicated just a year later in December of 1929. One of the local newspapers called the church a "symphony of charm and beauty." The church continued to flourish in the coming decades, and in 1948 began serving the community with Messiah Lutheran School; and to the suburbs, and Messiah, along with countless other urban churches, had to redefine itself in a changing neighborhood. The following decades brought new pastors and new vision for the congregation. No longer serving a primarily German area, Messiah shifted its focus to be a church for all nations. Now they host events that try to bring in school and neighborhood children, such as "Light up the Night," their annual evening of fun and food on Halloween. They also try to be visible in the neighborhood by caroling at Christmas, visiting neighbors to ask for prayer requests and hosting the Messiah Pumpkin Patch, which also serves as a fundraiser. This spring, they even had the chance to be featured on the Grand/South Grand Area House Tour; and

WHEREAS, during the 1960s and early 70s, however, many young families began to move

WHEREAS, Messiah Lutheran Church is also one of three churches that support of King Glory Lutheran school with one of the two campuses located just across the street. King of Glory is striving to provide quality education to St. Louis. Its middle school now includes the Nativity Miguel model that features high school placement assistance and a longer school day offering more challenging opportunities for students while also accommodating working parents; and

WHEREAS, the new millennium continues to bring more change to the Tower Grove neighborhoods as many homes are being renovated and young families are moving back to the city. It can be difficult for a congregation to constantly meet the needs of its community, but as ambassadors of the gospel, that their our calling. This is a year of celebration for Messiah Lutheran Church, as they remember the past century of its worship and service.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize Messiah Lutheran Church on its 100th Anniversary and we wish them continued success and accomplishment and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.
