Resolution No. 335

Grace Bumbry

WHEREAS, we have been apprised that Grace Bumbry is being honored as a St. Louis legend at the "St. Louis Argus Lunch with the Legends"; and

WHEREAS, Grace Bumbry was born in 1937 in St. Louis, Missouri, to a freight handler for the Cotton Belt Route railroad and his wife, a Mississippi schoolteacher who had once dreamed of becoming a singer herself. A religious, middle-class couple, Benjamin and Melzia Bumbry taught their three children to count their riches in music. There were always neighborhood kids rehearsing at the house after school; there was singing around the piano in the evenings; and there was warbling around the washtub on Saturdays, when the family did the laundry. Every Thursday night, the parents went off to rehearse with their church choir, while their sons, Benjamin and Charles, sang in the youth chorus. Too young to stay home alone, Grace tagged along with her brothers, who eventually persuaded their choir master to let her join the group, even though she was younger than the other members; and

WHEREAS, Bumbry entered Sumner High School with her eyes already fixed on the concert stage. Determined to learn as much as she could as fast as possible, she practiced constantly, often storming home from music lessons in tears when dissatisfied with her own performance. The first of several important mentors, no-nonsense voice teacher Kenneth Billups guided her carefully, pacing his lessons to her developing voice and reining her in when she wanted to leap ahead; and

WHEREAS, In 1954 St. Louis radio station KMOX held a teenage talent contest. Billups encouraged his 17-year-old student to enter, sharing her pleasure when she won. Grace was now the proud possessor of a $1,000 war bond, a free trip to New York, and a $1,000 scholarship to the St. Louis Institute of Music. The scholarship proved to be a bitter blessing; it slammed her up against the ugly reality of a prejudiced board of trustees who offered her segregated private lessons at the institute in lieu of admission alongside other students. Rosalyn Story, in her book, And So I Sing, recalled Melzia Bumbry's parting shot after an acrimonious meeting with institute trustees: "It may be YOUR school, but it's MY daughter," she said, and stalked out; and

WHEREAS, Bumbry and Lotte Lehmann arrived at Northwestern simultaneously—Bumbry as a student, Lehmann to offer master-classes. Bumbry presented some meticulously prepared operatic scenes and songs for Madame Lehmann's criticism and was thrilled to receive an invitation to spend a summer at her Musical Academy of the West in Santa Barbara, California. Eager to see that nothing stood in the way, Lehmann even arranged a scholarship, which was partly funded by comedian Anna Russell; and

WHEREAS, by 1960, Bumbry's career was clearly on its way. She made her debut at the Paris Opera as Amneris in Verdi's Aida and signed a two-year contract with the Opera House of Basel, Switzerland. However, these events were but preliminaries to the big break, which came later that year. Bumbry happened to be in Cologne, Germany, when conductor Wolfgang Sawallisch of Bavaria's Bayreuth Festival was searching for a possible Venus for Richard Wagner's opera Tannhauser. She sang for him and was invited to audition for Wieland Wagner, director of Bayreuth and grandson of the composer; and

WHEREAS, Bumbry's tour at the end of 1962 mated her as one of America's most distinguished artists. Lasting nine exhausting weeks, it consisted of a Carnegie Hall concert debut as well as 25 performances in 21 other cities, including St. Louis, where she sang for a packed 3,000-strong house in the same auditorium in which Marian Anderson had thrilled her eight years earlier. She reveled in the first family Christmas she had enjoyed in years and also visited her alma mater, Sumner High School, where she sat in on one of Mr. Billups's classes. The sight of the mentor who had set her on the road to stardom reportedly moved her to tears.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize opera legend, Grace Bumbry and we wish her continued success, achievement and accomplishment and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

WHEREAS, James and Seitz noted that their business is shifting from individual consumers to corporations. As budgets tighten, companies come in for special label wines made at the shop or extravagant-looking baskets at an affordable price; and

WHEREAS, now that their business is growing and expanding in scope, they have a part-time employee working with them who is a chemist by trade and brings his expertise to their business. They have another part-time employee who works with party events, either on or off-site. They work with non-profit organizations, bottling and labeling wine for tasting at an individual ticket price.

1780 Revolutionary War Battle of Fort San Carlos at St. Louis

WHEREAS, In July, 1779, Spain joined the American Revolutionary War against Great Britain. Great Britain had ordered its generals in Canada to begin expeditions against Spanish settlements on the Mississippi River a few weeks before this. Their mission was to drive out the rebels led by George Rogers Clark. Clark learned of this and warned the Spanish Commandant at Saint Louis, Fernand de Leyba, in March, 1780 to prepare for an attack. DeLeyba began fortifying the village; and

WHEREAS, with money from the villagers and his own resources, and with volunteer labor, he began to construct a tower which we call Fort San Carlos at what is now the intersection of 4th and Walnut Streets. He also had the villagers dig a mile-long trench from each side of the tower to the riverbank. The Spanish brought cannons to place in the tower from an abandoned fort; and

WHEREAS, around 1 PM on May 26, 1780 the large force of Indians, fur traders and seasoned troops under British command attacked the village. These attackers found the village to be protected by the tower and about 200 armed defenders; and

WHEREAS, however, some villagers were surprised working in the fields, and about 21 were killed and 70 captured. The cannon fire alarmed the Indians and they withdrew. The British western campaign failed. The village of Saint Louis was never attacked again. The same day George Rogers Clark and his army defeated the British at Cahokia.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis that we pause in our deliberations to recognize the 1780 Revolutionary War Battle of Fort San Carlos at St. Louis and we direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to further prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honoree at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Resolution No. 389
90th Anniversary of Southampton
Presbyterian Church

WHEREAS, the Southampton story begins at Tyler Place Presbyterian Church, early in 1913. A visionary elder, Dr. R.R. Vaughn, was certain a church was needed in the new Southampton subdivision. Dr. Vaughn had visited the area and had been told they needed a day school, not a Sunday school. A Presbytery survey showed not a single Presbyterian family in the community. On July 13, 1914, a blistering hot Sunday, Dr. John Roemer, Tyler Place's pastor, with Vaughn and others, started a Sunday School in a room over a plumber's shop at Devonshire and Macklind. Forty-six people were present. The next Sunday there were eighty-five; and

WHEREAS, In 1915, the plumber's shop burned down. The Sunday School moved to a much larger space over a drug store, later Finishing Products Corp. Worship was started by the Rev. J.H. Gauss. The next year, with help from Tyler Place, the northeast corner of Nottingham and Macklind was purchased, and a red-brick chapel built toward the rear of the property. The Rev. Albert Keller came as missionary pastor. In 1918, the Rev. Williamson Vater was called. It was then that Southampton Church was organized and came into being on Good Friday, April 18, 1919; and

WHEREAS, When Rev. Vater left in 1920, the Rev. William Murdoch, home on furlough from mission fields in India, remained to supply the pulpit and served for 30 years. When it was built, the chapel had seemed more than adequate. But growth was so rapid that soon a large tent was pitched on the front lawn to house some of the Sunday School classes; and

WHEREAS, in 1924, ground was broken for the first basement unit of a new church building. It was an extension from the chapel south along Macklind, built at a cost of $36,000. In two years, the membership had doubled. By 1929, a building fund was again started, to complete the projected church. The ensuing market crash and depression postponed plans. Finally, in November 1940, the congregation moved to Buder School for services. On June 8, 1941, the cornerstone of the present Southampton Presbyterian Church was laid. The stone arch and entrance doors of the basement church became the main entrance to the new sanctuary and dedication took place on the last day of May 1942; and

WHEREAS, Under these pastoral leaders, the church developed deep roots and reached out into the community. The 1980's brought a national change. The northern and southern assemblies became the Presbyterian Church, U.S.A., healing a breach dating to the Civil War. The two local bodies, in a service of reunion, came together as the Presbytery of Giddings-Lovejoy. In 1988, St. Louis was host to the two-hundredth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, they now worship in smaller quarters. We painted unused rooms, bought new carpeting and thirty chairs. Their first service in the new Chapel was held on February 10, 2008. Southampton Presbyterian Church remains a Church of Christ's Compassion.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED BY the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis, that we pause in our deliberations to recognize the 90th Anniversary of Southampton Presbyterian Church and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to further prepare a commemorative copy to the end that it may be presented to our honorees at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.

Employee Free Choice Act

WHEREAS, In 1935, the United States Congress enacted the National Labor Relations Act, which protects the rights of most employees in the private sector to organize labor unions and bargain collectively with their employers through representatives of their own choosing; and

WHEREAS, The freedom to form or join a union is internationally recognized by the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights as a fundamental human right; and

WHEREAS, Unions benefit communities by strengthening living standards, stabilizing tax bases, promoting equal treatment and enhancing civic participation; and

WHEREAS, AFL-CIO statistics indicate that unions help raise workers' pay and narrow the income gap for minorities and women, by increasing median weekly earnings by 31 percent for union women workers, 36 percent for African American workers, 46 percent for Latino workers and 8 percent for Asian American workers; and

WHEREAS, According to the Economic Policy Institute, unionized workers are more likely than their non-unionized counterparts to receive paid leave, are approximately 18% to 28% more likely to have employer-provided health insurance, and are 23% to 54% more likely to be in employer-provided pension plans; and

WHEREAS, According to the AFL-CIO, despite the benefits that union membership offers employees and their families and communities, workers across the nation are routinely denied the freedom to form unions and bargain for better wages and conditions, with 25 percent of private-sector employers involved in illegally firing at least one worker for organizing campaigns related to union activity; and

WHEREAS, AFL-CIO data also indicates that 77 percent of the public believes it is important to have strong laws protecting the freedom of workers to make their own decisions regarding the formation of unions, and that 60 percent of workers would join a union if they had the chance; and

WHEREAS, S.1041, introduced in the United States Senate and sponsored by Senator Edward M. Kennedy, and H.R. 800, introduced in the House of Representatives by Congressman George Miller, jointly referred to as "The Employee Free Choice Act," would amend the National Labor Relations Act to establish an efficient system to enable employees to form, join, or assist labor organizations, and provide for mandatory injunctions for unfair labor practices during organizing efforts; and

WHEREAS, The Employee Free Choice Act would also provide stronger penalties for violations committed by employers against employees during any period while employees are attempting to form a union or negotiate a first contract with an employer, and would provide a mechanism for mediation and arbitration where parties are unable to reach an agreement; and

WHEREAS, In general, the Employee Free Choice Act would safeguard the ability of workers to make their own decisions about forming a union, and establish meaningful penalties when employers violate workers' rights; now, therefore, be it

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis calls upon the United States Congress to pass S./H.R., "The Employees Free Choice Act", which would amend the National Labor Relations Act to establish an efficient system to enable employees to form, join or assist Labor Organizations, and to provide for mandatory injunctions and stronger penalties for unfair labor practices during organizing efforts and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this Resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and make it available to the public.

Resolution No. 378

Metro Funding

WHEREAS, in an effort to restore transit service to the St. Louis region as soon as possible, Metro has requested a one-time emergency appropriation of Thirty-Five Million Dollars from the State of Missouri which, if obtained, will restore transit service to the St. Louis region; and

WHEREAS, numerous employees and employers are frustrated and are in danger of losing their jobs because they have lost their only means of transportation. Businesses are considering closing, because their employees are unable to get to work due to the elimination of over 2,300 bus stops and entire bus routes; and

WHEREAS, with the high cost of gasoline, tens of thousands of our fellow citizens are now forced to seek car pools or other transportation arrangements that can be difficult on a family struggling financially to make ends meet; and

WHEREAS, the difficult economic environment we face in the St. Louis region is headed into a prolonged downward spiral with the loss of our public transportation system. The loss of public transportation is poised to create a catastrophic economic disaster for thousands of workers and businesses in this region; and

WHEREAS, in addition to daily ridership service reductions, Metro will be forced to reduce special event ridership options. That means no special events trains will be added for Cardinals, Rams and Blues games. In 2009, St. Louis will host Major League Baseball's All Star Game. The region will be front and center on an international stage. A quality transit system will play a critical role in how our region is perceived and enjoyed by visitors from around the world. Service reductions will negatively impact the quality of special service that Metro will be able to offer during the festivities; and

WHEREAS, twenty-four percent (24%) of Metro's 2,320 employee workforce will lose their jobs. Both union and salaried positions will be lost. What's even a greater blow to the regional economy is that according to outside sources, as many as 12,000 to 16,000 jobs may be lost by those unable to access their current jobs; and

WHEREAS, in the midst of this public transportation crisis, thousands of hard working individuals, the elderly and members of the disabled community that depend on public transportation for their jobs, shopping, and medical appointments are depending on the State of Missouri to support this emergency appropriation.

WHEREAS, these funds shall be spent solely and only for the purposes mentioned in this resolution.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of St. Louis endorses the request of Metro for an emergency appropriation of funds from the State of Missouri and strongly encourages the elected officials of the State of Missouri to afford Metro's request the greatest consideration and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to send a copy of this Resolution to the Governor of the State of Missouri, the Speaker of the House and the President Pro Tem of the Senate of the Missouri General Assembly.
