

Resolution Number 133

Whereas, Patrick Horine and his wife Jenny, residents of the city's Tower Grove South neighborhood, are proud citizens of St. Louis and dedicated to making this a more attractive and desirable place to live; and

Whereas, Patrick has long been interested in making healthy and environmentally conscience choices in his own life; and

Whereas, Patrick and Jenny decided to put their passion and resources into giving back to this city they love by creating a farmers' market in Tower Grove Park; and

Whereas, Patrick earned the trust and respect of the Park's Board of Commissioners and has proven that he has all the necessary skills to manage a farmers' market; and

Whereas, his inspired idea has now become a Saturday morning ritual and community gathering place for hundreds of our citizens; and

Whereas, farmers' markets offer healthy food choices at affordable prices while spreading the importance of responsible farming and environmentalism;

Now therefore be it resolved by the St. Louis Board of Aldermen that we pause in our deliberations to honor Patrick Horine, Jenny Ryan and the Tower Grove Park Board of Commissioners for having the vision, insight and ingenuity to give St. Louis another shining example of neighborhood success and we further direct the Clerk of this Board to spread a copy of this resolution across the minutes of these proceedings and to prepare a commemorative copy for presentation to our honorees at a time and place deemed appropriate by the Sponsor.
